

Sun Moon Center for Islamic Studies was established in 2012 by Sun Moon University aiming to play a key role in promoting mutual understanding and cooperation between Korean and Muslim society in the fields of research, culture, and education.

As part of this effort, we would like to invite you to the third international seminar under the theme: “The Middle East in a changing Regional & international Environment. ”

During the last years, the Middle East has witnessed many regional and international transformations that are shaping the region. As a result of the deterioration of oil prices in the international markets, the election of Donald Trump, the Gulf crisis, and the unfolding changes in Saudi Arabia.

In order to understand and analyze these changes, Sun Moon Center for Islamic Studies is inviting distinguished scholars to take part in the third International Seminar that will be held on 26 & 27 April 2018.

- Theme: The Middle East in a changing Regional & international Environment.
- Organizer: Sun Moon Center for Islamic Studies, Sun Moon University.
- Date: April, 26 & 27 2018.
- Venue: Sun Moon University (Asan campus), Korea
- Schedule of application for papers :

1. Proposal Submission: 17 December 2017.

The abstract should be no more than one page (A4) (in English or Arabic).

2. Please submit your abstract via e-mail smusmcis@gmail.com

(A Committee will review the abstracts and inform successful proposals by 2 January 2018).

3. Full Papers Submission: No later than 18 March 2018 (11 P.M) (in English or Arabic)

4. The center will provide accommodations during the seminar. (Participants should bear their own international airfare).